

Kupu Māori	Interpretation	Connection to Teaching and Learning in your context:
Whanaungatanga	A sense of relationship, connection, and belonging.
Manaakitanga	The process of showing respect and care; reciprocity between people, living things, and places.
Kotahitanga	Unity, collaboration, and collective action.
Kaitiakitanga	Guardianship, stewardship for living things and resources.
Auahatanga	Innovation and creation.
Rangatiratanga	Right to exercise authority, chieftainship, sovereignty, self-determination

Tikanga	The system of values and practices that have developed over time and are deeply embedded in traditional and social context, the correct way of doing things.
Manaaki whenua	Caring for the land
Manaaki tangata	Caring for the people
Rangahau	Research
Wairuatanga	Spirituality
Whakapapa	Recites a type of framework that details genealogy and maps interrelationships between all things.
Hauora	A concept of holistic wellbeing.	